

Dear Odyssey Hotel Group Hiring Team,

My name is Varvara Lazarenko, and I would like to express my great interest in applying for the Groups & Events Organizer position at The Rebyl. The bold, people-centered energy of your concept aligns perfectly with my own passion for organizing, hospitality, and creating meaningful connections.

I recently completed the Medical Biology master's program at Radboud University, specializing in Science, Management & Innovation (SMI). Throughout this program, I worked on real-life projects with local organizations, including the Municipality of Nijmegen – projects like “Health Technology Assessment of a Medical Guidance App for International Students” and “A Shared Ownership Model of the Green Corridor.” These projects enhanced my soft skills, teamwork abilities, and presentation skills. My master's thesis at HAN University of Applied Sciences focused on the added value of home telemonitoring technology, further enriching my experience with stakeholder collaboration.

Outside of academia, I've always enjoyed organizing events and connecting people. During my studies, I frequently volunteered to mentor first-year students and later organized volleyball tournaments on campus. These experiences reinforced my passion for helping others and enhanced my ability to communicate effectively. I love being the person who ensures that everyone and everything is in the right place, at the right time – and having fun while doing so.

As a Junior Research Assistant at the Faculty of Biology and an Assistant at a Contract Research Organization, I acquired substantial experience not only in developing academic papers and clinical documentation, but also in engaging with clients across different projects. Diligence, attention to detail, and high organizational and communication skills were essential at these positions.

Joining The Rebyl feels like joining a movement – and I would be proud to bring my drive and experience to your events team. I'm fluent in English and actively improving my Dutch, and I am eager to contribute my organizational skills, positive energy, and passion for hospitality to the team.

Thank you for considering my application. I would love the opportunity to meet and further discuss how my skills and motivation can support your mission of delivering high-quality hospitality.

Warm regards,
Varvara Lazarenko
